Duration—The average duration of cases in all magisterial courts fell from 13 to 12 days. It fell from 14 to 12 days in courts of honorary magistrates, from 15 to 12 in courts of stipendiary magistrates, from 10 to 9 in courts of bench magistrates and from 13 to 7 in courts of sub-divisional magistrates, but it rose from 13 to 15 in the courts of stipendiary special magistrates. The average duration in the courts of district magistrates rose from 12 to 13. In the courts of session it fell from 92 to 49 days.

This marked improvement in the sessions courts is attributable to two causes, the decrease in the number of cases, and the successful effort made in 1940 to dispose of old cases. This increased the average duration in 1940, but brought it down in 1941.

Cases pending over 6 weeks –The number of cases pending over 6 weeks in magistrates courts decreased by 2,133 to 10,253.

7. First offenders—The total number of offenders released on probation under section 562 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in magisterial courts decreased from 3,791 to 3,332.

The amounts ordered to be paid by way of compensation under section 545 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in courts of session increased from Rs.708 to Rs.1,340, but in the magisterial courts it decreased from Rs.44,727 to Rs.33,436.

10. The total number of appellants before the courts was 35,427 against 35,032 in 1940. The number of applicants for revision decreased from 8,085 to 7,876. In magistrates' courts the number of appellants decreased from 12,375 to 10,472, but in the courts of session increased from 18,547 to 20,004.

HIGH COURT

The total number of appellants in the High Court increased from 3,997 to 4,789.

The number of accused persons before the High Court on appeal by Government increased from 113 to 162. The average duration of all appeals in the province rose from 59 to 70. The duration of appeals in the High Court by persons convicted increased from 130 to 170.

As was explained last year, the method of calculating average duration (by dividing the aggregate number of days during which all cases remained pending by the total number of cases decided) sometimes gives an incorrect picture of the amount of work done and the speed with which it is done. If many old cases are decided in a year, the duration of that year is bound to increase, for until those cases are decided they cannot affect the average duration at all, and when they are decided the fact that they have been pending for so many days affects it adversely.

11. The total number of appellants in the High Court including the persons against whom Government filed appeals rose from 4,110 to 4,951. Of 4,006 persons whose appeals were decided during the year under review, 2,702 were completely unsuccessful. Five hundred and seventy-four persons had their sentences modified and 11 persons died. The sentences of 719 persons were reversed. No new trial was ordered in any case. The appeals of 945 persons remained pending at the close of the year. Three thousand and forty-four persons compared with 2,974 in 1940 filed applications for revision. The application of 2,167 persons were rejected. Orders were modified against 1,030 persons. Four persons died and 1 escaped. The cases of 414 persons remained pending at the close of the year. Applications for revision against 572 accused were filed by 182 complainants.

The number of Government appeals including those pending from 1940 before the Court was 47, of which the Court allowed 13 appeals, partly allowed and partly dismissed 2 and entirely dismissed 15. Seventeen remained pending. No new trial was ordered.

12. The system of trial by jury was in force as before in the courts of session at Allahabad, Bareilly, Benares and Cawnpore.

The number of persons tried by jury in these courts decreased from 283 to 273. As in the previous year, the cases of 6 persons were referred to the High Court under section 307 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Of the references pending from previous years and received during the year, the High Court dealt with 8. In 4 cases, the verdict of the jury was upheld, in 3 cases set aside and one case was returned for recording judgment under section 302, I. P. C.

The number of persons tried with the aid of assessors decreased from 9,079 to 8,610. The judge agreed with all the assessors in the cases of 4,443 accused, differed from one or more but not from all in the cases of 2,619 and differed from all in the cases of 1,546 accused. During the year under review 2 accused died.

13. During the year under review, the Chief Justice inspected Cawnpore, Fatehpur, Benares, Jaunpur, Ghazipur, Gorakhpur and Basti.

HONORARY MAGISTRATES

14 Honorary Magistrates decided the cases of 1,18,170 persons out of the total number of 3,23,511 persons, whose cases were decided throughout the province. A list of honorary magistrates whose work has been especially commended by district magistrates is given in statement H.

PART II

(CIVIL)

PART II

Administration of Civil Justice in the Province of Agra during the calendar year 1941

1. During the year under review, the territorial jurisdiction of the courts remained the same as last year.

There were a number of additional courts working in the Province during the year.

2. Original suits—The total number of suits instituted in the subordinate courts in the Province increased by about 40 per cent. (from 96,802 to 1,39,805). This does not include Encumbered Estates Act cases but does include applications under sections 12 and 33 of the Agriculturists' Relief Act which are classed as suits, and such applications explain to some extent the considerable increase in institutions. The rest of the increase is due mainly to the increase in small causes. Imperial Statement no. 2.

The number of suits for immovable property increased by 170 to 13,361.

3. Description and value of suits—The value of suits instituted in the subordinate courts has increased in all courts of institutions : Imperial Statement no. 3.

		Rs.
Munsifs' courts, increased by	... ...	59,30,383
Small Cause courts increased by	... ...	28,15,080
Civil Judges' courts increased by	... ...	27,45,593
District Judges' courts increased by	.	13,97,058

The total value of suits in these courts increased from Rs.4,53,40,151 to Rs.5,82,23,991. The increase in value is attributable to the large number of suits instituted.

4. Original suits disposed of—The disposal of original suits throughout the Province increased by 33,933 to 152,588. The number of cases disposed of excluding transfers also increased from 100,703 to 128,125. Imperial Statement no. 4.

The aggregate of pending cases at the close of the year increased by 16 684 to 49,251.

The total number of suits for disposal before the courts increased by 50,617 from 151,222 to 201,839. The number of suits decided after full trial was 37,463 compared with 33,731 in 1940.

The number of suits decided otherwise than after full trial was 1,15,125. The total number of suits pending for more than three months increased by 8,125 to 21,916.

The total number of suits pending for more than a year increased by 645 from 2,570 to 3,215. The courts of munsifs have mainly contributed to this increase.

The total number of original suits disposed of by district judges after full trial decreased by 4 from 49 to 45.

The following chart shows the amount of miscellaneous and insolvency work disposed of by District Judges in the larger judgeships :

Names of judgeships	Number of miscellaneous cases decided	Number of insolvency cases decided

Aligarh	146	Nil.

Jurisdiction under the Insolvency Act was exercised by the same civil judges as in 1940.

A summary of the work of civil judges, munsifs and courts of small causes during the year is contained in the following table :

Designation	Suits pending from 1940	Total number of suits for disposal	Total number of suits disposed of after full trial	Total number of suits disposed of otherwise	Total number of suits pending for more than a year
1	2	3	4	5	6
Civil Judges (Regular) ...	2,287	9,386	1,755	4,859	499
Munsifs (Regular) ...	18,197	82,657	16,800	37,041	2,292
Courts of Small Causes ...	11,138	1,05,484	18,267	70,415	367

The total number of regular and small cause court suits disposed of by civil judges increased from 16,447 to 18,969. The number of suits decided after full trial by civil judges was 4,230 compared with 3,830 in the previous year. The number of regular appeals decided by civil judges excluding those transferred increased from 5,703 to 6,346. The total number of suits disposed of by Munsifs increased from 71,060 to 97,202. Out of this total, the number of suits decided after full trial was 25,605 against 23,223 in the previous year.

During the year under review, the following munsifs exercised the powers of a magistrate of the first class :

Munsifs of Hathras, Kasganj Mirzapur, Mohammadabad (Ghazipur), Rasra, Saidpur, Lalitpur, Shikohabad, Kairana, Chandausi, Sambhal, Deoband and Tilhar.

They decided 541 criminal cases during the year.

5. Duration—The number of days occupied by district and additional district judges in civil work rose from 989 to 1,097. The number of days devoted to criminal work decreaesd by 208 to 3,536. The average duration of cases decided after full trial in the courts of munsifs and civil judges increased from 177 and 201 to 182 and 302 respectively, while in the courts of district judges the duration decreased from 432 to 322.

The provincial average duration of suits decided after full trial was 138 as against 136 in the previous year.

One matter requiring explanation is the fact that although civil judges and munsifs disposed of many more cases this year than last, the average duration in their courts increased. This is due to the method of calculating duration. Pending cases cannot be taken into account in calculating duration and each old case decided increases the average duration proportionately in each court.

6. Appeals—The total number of appeals including revenue appeals instituted before the courts subordinate to the High Court decreased by 33 to 9,434. The total number of regular civil appeals before the subordinate courts decreased from 22,703 to 21,551. The total number of regular civil appeals disposed of by transfer was 6,228. The total number of regular civil appeals for disposal was thus 15,323, of which 8,178 were disposed of and 7,145 remained pending. The number of revenue appeals before the subordinate courts increased from 3,671 to 4,103. The pending file of such appeals decreased from 1,349 to 1,205. The total number of appeals disposed of including appeals from the decisions of revenue courts decreased by 499 to 17,304. These figures also include disposals by transfer. The pending file of all appeals decreased by 117 to 8,350. The number of appeals pending for more than a year decreased by 27 to 1,372.

The number of appeals summarily rejected in subordinate courts under Order XLI, rule 11, Code of Civil Procedure, decreased by 28 to 86.

The number of permanent judges of the High Court was 11. The Hon'ble Mr. Justice S. K. Dar worked as an Additional Judge from 1st January, 1941 to 18th May, 1941, and again from 21st July, 1941 to 31st December, 1941. On the 19th February, 1941, the then Chief Justice Sir J. G. Thom, Kt., died. In the vacancy caused by the death of Sir John Thom, the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Iqbal Ahmad was appointed Acting Chief Justice on 21st February, 1941 and permanent Chief Justice on 21st July, 1941. In the vacancy caused by the appointment of Sir Iqbal Ahmad, Kt., as Chief Justice, the following Hon'ble Judges were
